

Effective Scrutiny in a Brave New World

17 October 2012 from 4.30 to 8pm

At City Hall, 64 Victoria Street, Westminster, SW1E 6QP

London scrutiny member seminar – revised agenda

16.30 Arrival (tea and coffee available).

16.45 Welcome by the Chair, Cllr Toby Simon.

16.50 Scrutiny in different contexts – what can scrutineers in parliament, the London Assembly and local government learn from each other, with:

- Meg Hillier MP, Labour & Co-operative MP for Hackney South & Shoreditch, member of the Public Accounts Select Committee, former councillor.
- Caroline Pidgeon AM, leader of the Liberal Democrat London Assembly Group, chair of the Transport Committee and deputy chair of the Police and Crime Committee.
- Cllr Toby Simon, Enfield, Chair of the London Scrutiny Network.

Discussion, Q&A, contributions from audience.

17.50 Networking and tea and coffee.

18.10 Workshops:

1. Engaging the local community in scrutiny.
2. Scrutiny of shared / cross-borough services.
3. Scrutiny of the commissioning process.

19.20 Plenary:

- i. Workshop report back and discussion.
- ii. Follow up and suggestions for future events and activity.

20.00 Close

This event is organised by the Centre for Public Scrutiny as part of a London Regional Scrutiny Support Programme, funded by participating authorities.

For further information about the Programme, contact Mike Cooper at - mike@mikecoopermcc.co.uk.