Executive Summary

The purpose of this report is to inform Members of recent practice developments in Children's Services and to update Members on progress of important current projects. In our Children and Young People's Plan (2019-2022), we have articulated our three-year priorities which are aligned with the City for All commitments.

The report covers the key issues and developments over the last 12 months in Children's Services. It sets out what we have done, what we have achieved for Westminster children and families and up and coming challenges.
